The Long Beach City Auditor’s Office is currently recruiting for the position of Senior Auditor. Our Office provides a variety of audit and review services, including contract and performance audits, operational and internal control reviews, and fraud investigations.

The Senior Auditor will be responsible for overseeing audits in compliance with professional standards, along with other related activities. The Senior Auditor may be asked to execute all or portions of the audit process, from planning through report preparation. As an audit project leader, the Senior Auditor must be able to analyze risk, possess critical thinking skills, and provide recommended courses of action. In addition, this position would supervise and review work conducted by Staff Auditors, and prepare and review audit work papers, department correspondence, and reports. A Senior Auditor would be expected to mentor and develop Staff Auditors and take a leadership role in the Office. This includes contributing to a positive work environment, maintaining productive relationships with Office and City staff and being committed to continuous improvement in City government.

Desired education, experience and skills include an undergraduate degree in accounting, finance or public administration. Possession of a professional certification is a plus. Should have two years experience as a Senior Auditor. Government experience or performance auditing is preferred. Must be proficient in Microsoft Office products and possess excellent written and oral communication skills. Starting salary range is $55,000 - $75,000, depending on qualifications.
