

Mark Guillen

*Public Affairs Manager, West Region
Crown Castle*

Mark Guillen is an external affairs leader specializing in public affairs, government relations, consulting for telecommunications, health care, and municipal water and energy recovery management. Experienced in building partnerships and coalitions that drive corporate goals across multiple states in the western region of the United States, Mark currently directs public affairs' efforts of the 13 western states for Crown Castle, Inc., an S&P 500 company listed on the NYSE with an enterprise value of $99 billion.

As former Director of Civic Engagement and Government Contract for Molina Healthcare, Mark was responsible for building vital relationships between civic leaders, nonprofit organizations, local legislators, and other community based organizations. Prior to his role at Molina Healthcare, Mark spent 28 years with the Los Angeles County Sanitation Districts as a Senior Project Manager in research and monitoring and in its Energy Recovery Department, overseeing some of the largest programs of its kind in the nation.

In addition to his board service with the Ukleja Center for Ethical Leadership, Mark devotes his time to the Long Beach Economic Partnership, YMCA Greater Long Beach, Long Beach Symphony, CSULB's Institute for Innovation and Entrepreneurship, and Jewish Family and Children's Services boards of directors. Mark also participates in philanthropic giving for a number of organizations, including The Rumba Foundation, Long Beach Community Foundation, Crown Castle, and other private philanthropic foundations.

Mark is an alumnus of UCLA and the Leadership Long Beach Executive Leadership program. He is a native of the greater Long Beach area and his family is well-respected in the region for their generations of civic leadership.
