

Kendra Deter Jones is Vice President Legal Affairs and General Counsel of Epson America, Inc. Epson is a global technology leader with product lines that include inkjet printers for home, office and industrial applications, scanners, 3LCD projectors, industrial robots and augmented reality smart glasses. As General Counsel, Kendra is part of Epson's executive team and is responsible for overseeing legal affairs including litigation and legal issues arising from the development, marketing, sales and support of Epson's broad portfolio of products. Kendra manages the legal department at Epson's regional headquarters for the U.S., Canada and Latin America in Long Beach, California.

Prior to joining Epson, Kendra held multiple in-house positions at Western Digital Corporation in Irvine, California from 2003 to 2015. In Kendra's last role as Vice President, Legal, she was responsible for a broad range of global commercial matters, as well as brand protection and intellectual property. Kendra began her legal career at O'Melveny & Myers LLP in Newport Beach, California with a focus on mergers and acquisitions and SEC reporting and compliance. She holds a J.D. from Loyola Law School, a M.B.A. from Loyola Marymount University and B.A. in Business Administration from the University of Washington. She also served on the Board of Directors of the Girl Scouts of Orange County from 2015 to 2018.