

Ms. Barbara Barcon has been a finance executive with over 30 years of corporate finance leadership in the Aerospace and Energy industries. She has an extensive background in financial planning, M&A and operational management. At Pacific Gas and Electric Company from 2008-2010 she was Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. Her career includes over 21 years at Hughes Electronics where she rose to the position of CFO of the satellite manufacturing business unit. From 2001-2007, Ms. Barcon was at TRW/Northrop Grumman for six years where she was Vice President of Financial Process Excellence and was responsible for the development and implementation of a process improvement and management program for Finance across the company.

In addition to the above, Ms. Barcon has spent several years with a pass through Private Equity firm where, as a Senior Vice President, she is responsible for portfolio company financial oversight and controls and financial due diligence.

Ms. Barcon earned a Bachelor's degree from San Diego State University and her MBA from CSULB. She also serves as a member of the College of Engineering Advisory Council.