

Kevin Okerstrom - An industry expert in environmental health and safety and an MBA, CSULB Alum. Kevin was heavily involved in the Student Center for Professional Development (SCPD) Advisory Board for several years. He was Chair of that Board and implemented many new initiatives to enhance the program and it grew greatly under his leadership. He now feels called to contribute in a new way by joining the MBA Board. Bringing an environmental health and safety background will add depth to the Board, as well as bringing experience from another CSULB Advisory Board. His leadership and strategic skills will have a strong and immediate impact.
