

Karita Webber Business Management Director, Strategic Space Systems Division Northrop Grumman Space Systems.

Karita leads a Functional Homeroom and Cost Management team of ~300 employees.

Karita's 37+ year career at Northrop Grumman has included many positions of increasing levels of responsibility at the Functional level, and on various Major Programs.

Karita earned a Bachelor's of Science degree in Business from California State University, Long Beach as well as graduate studies and multiple certifications from UCLA to include Executive Management Program, African-American Leadership Institute, and Professional Designation in Government Contract Management. Karita also has received a Certificate in Effective Leadership from the University of Southern California. Other noteworthy achievements are, she is an alumni of the Women In Leadership (WIL) Cohort Northrop Grumman and a Dale Carnegie Leadership Institute Graduate. Karita is also Six Sigma Green Belt Certificated. Karita believes in giving back to the community.

She is a Certified Motivational Speaker – Courses include:

- Interpersonal Skills Training, Etiquette, and Dress For Success

She is the Director of Fine Arts and the Worship Leader – Greater Cornerstone Church, Los Angeles, The Author of "Liturgical Dance Decorum", a liturgical dance instructional pamphlet, A Youth Motivation Volunteer, and A Member of Alpha Kappa Alpha Sorority Incorporated