Rudy Hanley

Rudy Hanley is the President and CEO of SchoolsFirst FCU (formerly known as Orange County Teachers FCU) headquartered in Santa Ana, California. The credit union, with $8.5 billion in assets, provides a full range of up-to-date financial services to more than 460,000 Members from thirty-four branch locations, and is the third party administrator for school retirement plans for more than 150 school districts in Southern California.

As a member-owned financial cooperative, SchoolsFirst FCU’s number one priority is to provide the highest quality service to school employees and their family members. This has helped it become the largest educational credit union in the nation and the 5th largest overall.

Prior to joining SchoolsFirst FCU in 1982, Mr. Hanley worked for the California Credit Union League (CCUL) and the Washington, D.C. office of the Credit Union National Association (CUNA). He started his career as a high school math teacher and tax and small business consultant.

A graduate of the University of California at Irvine, Mr. Hanley has a Bachelors degree in mathematics and a teaching credential. He obtained his Juris Doctorate from Western States University, College of Law.