OLLI @ ALPERT
JEWISH COMMUNITY CENTER
SUMMER CLASS OFFERING

Tuesdays, July 8 to August 26, 2014

Osher Lifelong Learning Institute is pleased to present a class to be held at the JCC.

Topics in Jewish Studies
This class is a series of various subjects in Jewish history:
Lectures 1 & 2: The History of the Tanach (the Bible)
Lecture 3: The Maccabean and Hasmonian Periods
Lecture 4: First and Second Rebellions of 66 C.E. and 132 C.E.
Lectures 5 & 6: The Jewish Philosophers of the Middle Ages
Lecture 7: What is the Kabbalah?
Lecture 8: The Reform, Orthodox Conservative, and Reconstructive movements in contemporary Judaism.

Class Leader: Mark Barnett, D.D., Ms.D.
Dates: Tuesdays, July 8 – August 26 (8 weeks)
Time: 7:00 – 8:30 PM
Location: JCC, room 27

Cost: $10 + Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) @ CSULB membership*

* Registration for this class requires OLLI membership of $20 for one half year (April – Sept). Membership gives you the opportunity to take lecture or computer classes at any of our venues and you are on the mailing list for all sessions. Mail in your Registration form or visit the OLLI office at CSULB to reserve your spot in this class. For more information please contact OLLI at (562) 985-8237

This class is offered to members of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at California State University, Long Beach, as part of its extensive list of not-for-credit classes for adults 50 and older on the CSULB campus, at classrooms in downtown Long Beach and at Leisure World. See more at www.csulb.edu/centers/olli  SUMMER REGISTRATION STARTS on JUNE 7 at campus office.