Osher Lifelong Learning Institute is pleased to present a 6-week class to be held at the JCC.

Watercolor Free & Easy

Any level of experience will get you into this “hands-on” watercolor class where you will create your own masterpiece each time. A landscape picture will be furnished for you at the first class; from then on you will bring your own picture - drawn, and ready to paint. There will be demonstrations for technique. Materials are needed. Good quality paper is very important.

For material list contact: joanborytaart@gmail.com.

Class limit: 20

Instructor: Joan Boryta

6:30 – 8:30 PM
Alpert Jewish Community Center
Room 61/62

Cost: $10 + $40 Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) membership*

* Registration for this class requires OLLI membership of $40 for 2016-2017. Membership gives you the opportunity to take lecture or computer classes at any of our venues and be on the mailing list for all sessions. Mail in the Registration form or visit the OLLI office at CSULB to reserve your spot in this class. For more information please contact OLLI at (562) 985-8237

This class is offered to members of the Osher Lifelong Learning Institute (OLLI) at California State University, Long Beach, as part of its extensive list of not-for-credit classes for adults 50 and older on the CSULB campus, in downtown Long Beach and at Leisure World. See more at www.csulb.edu/olli

FALL REGISTRATION starts August 27 at the CSULB campus.
