40 year Celebration of Providing on Campus Quality Physical Activity Programs for Children with Disabilities

On Saturday, March 20, the CSULB College of Health and Human Services (CHHS) and the Kinesiology Department (KIN) celebrated the “40 year Reunion” of their on campus physical activity programs for children with disabilities. The celebration was shared by over 200 attendees and included: CSULB alumni, many who are now teachers of Adapted Physical Education programs throughout California; parents and children who, over the past 40 years, have attended the program; and current and past KIN faculty and students. The celebration included physical education activities for all children attending and a social event with slide program with notable speakers:

Sharon Guthrie -Dept Chair –Welcome
Dixie Grimmett - Dean CHHS Welcome
Andy Sinclair - Emeritus Professor, First Camp Nugget Director -History
Rae Gablich- Parent, Long Beach Councilwoman 8th District
Nancy Martin – Current Student and Parent Perspective
David Irlen -Former Camper, Staff Member
Barry Lavay – Director since 1988 of ASAPP & Camp Nugget –who provided an overview of the current program
