The Bureau of Government Research and Service Training

The Bureau of Government Research and Service can provide ready made or custom designed training programs for public organizations and non-profits in Southern California. Check back for schedules of future seminars and workshops.

Examples of past training programs include:

* Grant Writing
* Technical Writing
* Improving Organizational Skills
* Negotiating for money in the public sector
* Improving Public Contact Skills
* Managing Values & Ethics
* Website Design & Management for Public Agencies.