YES, applications are accepted on a first come, first served basis. We will let potential applicants know when we are at capacity.

Eligibility requirements

- YES, you must have already received an MSW. This program is only available to MSW graduates from an accredited Social Work program.
- YES, you must receive CTC clearance BEFORE you apply to the program.
- YES, if you have passed all 3 sections of the CBEST then you do not have to retake it (even if it was a long time ago). The CBEST does not have to be passed at the time of application submission; you must pass all 3 sections before we recommend you for the credential.
- Yes, your first-year internship with children and or youth can qualify as your eligibility for the post-MSW program. This internship will not count towards the required 600 clinical clock hours.

Clinical clock hour requirement

- NO, we do not accept first-year internship hours in a school setting.
- YES, we will consider second-year internship hours in your graduate school experience provided that your internship was at an approved PPSC site with supervision from an MSW with a PPSC in School Social work and Child Welfare and Attendance. It will facilitate your application if you can have your qualified field instructor complete the PPSC Final Skills Evaluation and the Required Activities Checklist.
- YES, we will assist with locating an eligible placement for you once you have been accepted into the program. If you have a placement option in mind, we will contact the site to confirm the arrangements meet requirements.

Program costs

- NO, there is no additional cost for the four mandatory seminars; however they are offered only once per year (two in the fall and two in the spring).
- YES, you must pay the full program cost even if you are asking that we evaluate your placement experience to see if it will count towards the required 600-clinical clock hours.
- YES, you must attend our School Social Work class and pay the established fee.
