The CHHS story continues and in 2012-13 we will continue to be leaders. We need to inform the University, Administrators, Students, Alumni and the Public that we are first in the:

Development of and Size of our Distance Education Programs

Community Service

Dollars Generated by Grants and Contracts. Last year, we produced $11,510,821.89 representing 31.71% of all new awards produced by all Colleges in the University.

Number and quality of active centers

Number and quality of graduate programs

Number of students who come to the University seeking professional careers.

The Dean of CHHS made the list of the nation’s “Top 100 most Awesome Deans in Public Health”.

Dr. Betty McMicken was honored as a Fellow of the American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA), joining Dr. Geraldine Wallach and Dr. Carolyn Conway Madding as ASHA Fellows.

Dr. Jennifer Ostergren was newly appointed as an ASHA Accreditation Site Evaluator.

Dr. Pei-Fang Hung is a new Full-Time Lecturer.

100% job placement among Speech Language Pathology M.A. graduates.

100% of M.A. graduates passed the National Speech-Language-Pathology examination.
The faculty published 2 books, 10 book chapters, 7 peer-reviewed journal articles, 6 encyclopedia entries, and delivered 27 conference presentations, 11 of which involved master’s students and 2 of which involved undergraduate students.

For the third consecutive year, M.S. graduates experienced a 100% acceptance rate to leading Ph.D. programs with full funding packages.

Dr. Ryan Fischer was elected to the Executive Board of the Western Society of Criminology; Dr. Hank Fradella was elected President of the Society and was selected as the 2012 recipient of the Joseph P. Lohman Award for outstanding service to the profession. Dr. Dina Perrone received the Junior Scholar Award from the American Sociological Association and a Junior Faculty Professional Development Award from Sage. Dr. Aili Malm was tenured and promoted to Associate Professor, and Dr. Brenda Vogel was promoted to Professor.
The Department welcomes two new tenure-track faculty in Fashion Merchandising and Design, Dr. Marie Botkin and Dr. Young Ha.

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has awarded 10 year accreditations for the Didactic Program in Dietetics and the Dietetic Internship programs.

The Academy of Nutrition and Dietetics has approved a new program under which to become a Registered Dietician. The Individualized Supervised Practice Pathway (ISPP) began in Spring 2012.

Dr. Nilufer Medora received the Outstanding Professor Award.

Dr. Peter Kreysa received an Alumni Grant to start an EMT program.

This year, the Campus Couture Fashion Show will celebrate its 25th anniversary!
The Accelerated Master’s Degree Program was ranked 19th amongst the Business Graduate Schools for Physician Executives nationwide by Modern Healthcare.

Three Health Care Administration students were chosen to be trained in the new Molina Healthcare Program, called the Professional Development Program (PDP).

Natalie Whitlock, a Health Care Administration graduate student, has become the first CSULB student to receive prestigious Southern California Kaiser Fellowship.

This summer Health Care Administration students in the Global Health Issues course traveled to Taiwan to explore the culture and the health system of Taiwan hosted by China Medical University.

Health Care Administration College Bowl team finished 2nd out of seven SoCal teams in this academic competition in April 2012.
NCLR/CSULB Center for Latino Community Health received a $1,750,000 grant from National Institutes of Health to provide student opportunities designed to facilitate careers in health disparities research.

Dr. Britt Rios-Ellis and Dr. Gail C. Frank developed two new cross-college graduate courses that have been added to the CSULB catalog.

A group of 8 CHHS students attended and presented posters at the 5th annual National Conference on Health Disparities, held Nov. 30-Dec. 3, 2011 at the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) in Charleston.
The Department hired a new tenure-track faculty member, Dr. Tiffanye Vargas, an applied sport psychologist.

KIN developed a student exchange program with the University of Limerick, Ireland; another is underway with the University of Rome, and we are hosting students from Sendai University in Japan for the fourth consecutive year.

Dr. Barry Lavay received the prestigious William A. Hilliman Distinguished Service Award in Washington DC. and Dr. Alison Wrynn was elected to the National Academy of Kinesiology.

The LifeFit Center, formerly known as the Center for Active Aging, is now located in the newly renovated KIN building. The Center has fitness programming for people 50 years of age and older, and a Kinesiotherapy Clinic for people with special needs.
Doctor of Nursing Practice (DNP) Consortium students were admitted for Fall 2012. Instruction has begun!

$1,883,435 dollars in private, state and federal grants and contracts were awarded to the faculty of the School of Nursing during 2011-2012 academic year for different projects.

The School of Nursing maintains its full national and state accreditation. September 25-27, an accreditation visit by the California Board of registered Nursing will take place for renewal of the School of Nursing’s state accreditation.

The partnership between CSULB School of Nursing and Hanoi Medical University (HMU), School of Nursing in Vietnam has begun for the purpose of upgrading their Baccalaureate Nursing Program. CSULB nursing faculty offered two courses in Hanoi in April and August 2012. One HMU nursing faculty has been at CSULB since May of 2012 observing and auditing the nursing courses.
The department began the first entry-level doctoral program in the CSU.

Doctor of Physical Therapy students began the curriculum in summer, 2012.

Dr. Jody Cormack serves the CSU as coordinator for planning the CSU entry-level DPT programs at 5 campuses.

Alumnus Samuel Ward, PT, PhD, was awarded the CHHS Outstanding Alumnus Award. Dr. Ward’s area of investigation at UC San Diego is in the mechanics of muscle. He is a member of the department advisory committee.

Dr. Joyce Campbell was awarded the CHHS Community Service Award.

The Department continues its high pass rate of graduates on the physical therapy licensing exam and 100% employment, serving the community with over 3000 graduates since 1968.
Dr. Frank Baber received the 2011 International Studies Association Book Prize for International Ethics. He also served as a Visiting Fellow at the Research School for the Social Sciences at Australian National University.

Dr. Dave Powell and Dr. Michelle Saint-Germain authored a paper, “Expectations for Student Learning Outcomes Assessment” that was distributed to MPA programs nationwide and provided guidance on complying with the 2009 NASPAA accreditation standards.

Dr. Ed Martin has contributed to recent publications in Public Administration and Management on the current fiscal crisis, democratic governance, and common pool resource application to the economy.

Dr. William Moore contributed the research methodology and data analysis work to a presentation that was presented at the National Council for Geographic Education.
Joanie Conley received the Consuelo Nieto - Mentor of the Year Award from the campus Partners for Success program.

Dr. Maridith Janssen received the Outstanding Recreation Therapy Educator Award from the California Park and Recreation Society, RT Section.

Dr. Katherine “KJ” James was appointed as the Vice-Chair of the California Foundation for Parks and Recreation Scholarship Committee.

Dr. Melissa D’Eloia recently published in the Journal of Youth Development as well as presented research at the prestigious Leisure Research Symposium in Atlanta, GA.

The Department welcomes Dr. Keith Fulthorp, Assistant Professor, to the faculty as the newest tenure track faculty member.
The School of Social Work/Child Welfare Training Centre, generated just under six million dollars in grants and contracts. Our Child Welfare Training Centre delivered over 340 trainings to those who work with the most vulnerable in our society.

Students from the School of Social Work completed over 230,000 hours of community internships translating into $3.5 million dollars of in-kind contribution to communities in need.

The School of Social Work completed a year-long strategic planning process ending in a unanimously approved three-year strategic plan.

Completing our third year Distance Education cycle in Ventura and Sonoma and recruiting for another cycle beginning in 2013.

The School of Social Work hired two new Associate Directors for: Field Education program and Admissions and Student Services.

Dr. Steve Wilson was conferred the University’s Distinguished Faculty Teaching Award.
This year we will continue with our Strategic Planning to strengthen the College. We have been and will continue to be the University’s connection to the community and a leader of innovative programs.

Welcome back to the 2012-2013 academic year.