Dean Kenneth Millar and Associate Dean Sue Stanley cordially invite you to attend

The College of Health and Human Services: 2012-2013 Faculty Research Colloquium

Thursday, December 6, 2012

5:00-5:45 p.m. – Welcome and Reception
6:00-8:00 p.m. – Research Presentations

The Pointe Event and Conference Center at the Walter Pyramid, California State University, Long Beach

Come learn about the latest in research conducted by the College of Health and Human Services Faculty. Select faculty will present their research findings during the evening with posters or presentations. Light refreshments will be provided.

Faculty Research Presentations will be made by:

Ryan Fischer, Ph.D. Criminal Justice
Understanding Legal Highs: An Examination of the Prevalence, Knowledge, and Cultural/Social Factors Associated with the Use of Salvia Divinorum, K2, Mephedrone and "Bath Salts"

Brenda Freshman, Ph.D., Health Care Administration
Improving Operating Room Efficiency in a Safety Net Medical Center Through the Identification and Implementation Of Industry Best Practices and the Use of Process Engineering Techniques.

Javier Lopez-Zetina, Ph.D., Health Science
Surface Water Sampling and Analysis in Los Angeles, California

Alison Wrynn, Ph.D., Kinesiology
Women in the 2012 Olympic and Paralympic Summer Games: An Analysis of Participation and Leadership Opportunities

Cheryl Lee, Ph.D., Social Work
Mentoring of First Generation College Students: A Quantitative- Qualitative Study

There is no cost to attend.
Please RSVP to Heather Wantuch at heather.wantuch@csulb.edu or 5-4066 by Friday, November 30, 2012 at 5pm.