POSITION: Part-Time Lecturer (Openings in Master of Business Administration Program)
Part-time temporary positions may be available for Fall or Spring semester. If you are interested in being considered for a teaching position during the 2021-2022 academic year, please submit the required documentation as listed below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Applications are being accepted for the academic year 2021-2022.

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience.

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: MBA or a relevant Masters degree with significant industry experience. Successful record of teaching Human Resources or Organizational Behavior (OB) courses. Current relevant professional experience holding an upper level position at a major corporation or firm. Demonstrated proficiency as a consultant or a management/HRM professional or showing significant involvement in a state or national HRM organization. Must meet the current requirement of the College of Business Administration to be Scholarly Academic (SA), Practice Academic (PA), Scholarly Practitioners (SP), or Instructional Practitioners (IP). Information concerning these four requirements can be found Faculty Qualification Definition and Standard (pdf). Demonstrated commitment to working successfully with a diverse student population.

DESIRED/PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Ph.D. preferred. Record of scholarly and creative activity.

DUTIES: Teach HRM/OB graduate courses such as HRM 652 Seminar in Human Resource Management and other graduate level HRM courses. See specific course descriptions for specific course descriptions.

The Graduate Program at California State University, Long Beach is committed to building a more diverse faculty, staff, and student body as it responds to the changing population and educational needs of California and the nation. We seek applicants and nominations from those who have experience teaching, mentoring, and developing research in ways that effectively address individuals from historically underrepresented backgrounds. California State University, Long Beach is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

EMPLOYMENT REQUIREMENTS: A background check (including a criminal records check and telephone reference check with most recent employer) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 Revised July 21, 2017 as a condition of employment.
REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION: Letter of application addressing minimum and desired/preferred qualifications, resume with current email address, a list of three to five current references, a copy of the official transcript from institution awarding highest degree. Finalist will be required to submit signed SC-1 form, three current letters of recommendations, and official transcript.

Applications, required documentation, and/or requests for information should be addressed to:
