Content Review

The WCRC is hosting a series of workshops for graduate students who are working on their theses/projects.

The content review workshop is the first of three thesis/project workshops that will clearly outline each section of your report to ensure that you are inserting your research into the correct section.

Bring a hard copy to the workshop and receive one-on-one feedback.

See you there!

Additional workshops will be held on September 20th and October 3rd.
