A Note From Our Artistic Director

Welcome to Cal Rep! Proud to Present... is a brilliant and bold play that turns the theatre on its head: we're watching 6 actors in a rehearsal room create a theatre piece about genocide in early 20th century Africa. It is a challenging, meta-theatrical play that acts like a mirror: it reflects all of the issues that are present in that rehearsal room and also in our society: issues of prejudice and power, racism and remembering, stereotypes and storytelling. In the end, it becomes not really a play about early 20th century Africa but about 21st century America. I'm thrilled that we're presenting this important new play by one of America's most important new playwrights, Jackie Sibblies Drury.
