Abstract: This talk begins with an introduction to the inverse spectral problem popularized by M. Kac's 1966 article in the American Mathematical Monthly, "Can one Hear the Shape of a Drum?" I will introduce the main techniques used in inverse spectral problems. I shall prove that one can hear the shape of acute trapezoids by combining a lot of these techniques. This is a joint work with Rowlett.