Abstract: Augmented biracks are algebraic structures related to knots and links. In this talk we will see a homology theory associated to finite augmented biracks and define knot and link invariants associated to elements of the second cohomology of a quotient complex we call N-reduced cohomology.