Music

Music, gift of the highest God, attracts men, attracts the gods; Music calms angry souls and uplifts sad spirits. Music even moves the very trees and the wild beasts.

Roses Are Blooming

Now all the roses are blooming, And Love a cunning net has wrought. O butterfly winging, Take heed, or thou wilt be caught.

And if I were imprison’d, As ’mid the roses fair I stray, Were Love himself my keeper, Yet I should wither away.

For care and sorrow I know not, Through blossoming woods I flit along. And on the whisper’ing breezes Is borne the burden of song.

So they say

Abandon surrounding abandon, Tenderness touching tenderness… Your oneness endlessly Caresses itself, so they say; Self-caressing through its own clear reflection. Thus you invent the theme of Narcissus fulfilled.

To Women

Nature gave steers horns; She gave horses hooves, The hares swift feet, The lions wide jaws; To the fish she gave fins, and wings to the birds; To men, to men, however, she gave wisdom. To men! ... not to women? What did she give to them? Beauty, beauty. Instead of all our spears, Instead of all our shields -- For against the beauty of women Neither steel nor fire can triumph.
O Vos Omnes

O vos omnes
qui transitis per viam,
attendite et videte
si est dolor similis
sicut dolor meus.

O All You

O all you
who pass along this way, behold and see if there is any sorrow
like my sorrow.

DON’T MISS
WINTER FESTIVAL CONCERT
December 5-6, 2015

More than 200 singers ring in the holidays with favorite carols, songs, and classical works in Long Beach’s greatest Winter extravaganza. Set in the historic sanctuary of First Congregational Church of Long Beach, this traditional concert has thrilled audiences for three decades! Enjoy the majesty of the great Möller organ, handbells, vocal jazz, and, of course the combined voices of all seven CSULB choirs!
