WELCOME...

I would like to offer a sincere welcome to this year’s Opera Scenes, or as I like to call it, “...LIFE, LOVE, AND APPEARANCES... A behind-the-door retrospective of suburban LIFE...”

Since you will be seeing Trouble In Tahiti in its entirety, I thought it would be fun to set everything in the same time period as Bernstein’s provocative work and explore the different relationships offered in these scenes with the perspective of suburban life in the 1950s. Please enjoy...

Sincerely,

Eli Villanueva

Ioannis Protopapas is from Sitia, on the Island of Crete. He completed his bachelor’s degree in Orchestral Conducting at the Ionian University in Corfu, Greece. While there, he directed performances with the Ionian University Orchestra and Ionian University Contemporary Music Ensemble.

He is currently completing his master’s degree in Orchestral Conducting at CSULB and is a student of Professor Johannes Müller Stosch. Ioannis is the graduate assistant conductor for the Bob Cole Conservatory Symphony, the teaching assistant for the Opera Orchestra, and was recently named a Conducting Fellow for the Long Beach Symphony Orchestra. He is also coaching and working with the BCCM Opera Institute.

Ioannis is a recipient of the prestigious Onassis Foundation Scholarship and is a Bob Cole Scholar. Last year he received the Gerondelis Foundation Scholarship and in 2014, he won third prize in the International Conducting masterclass and competition with the Duna Symphony Orchestra and Michael Dittrich in Budapest, Hungary. He has attended both orchestral and choral conducting seminars and masterclasses with Andre Thomas, Michalis Economou, Andre van Der Merwe, Basilio Astulez, Miltos Logiadis, Doris Lang Kosloff, and Norbert Baxa.

Eli Villanueva has earned outstanding credentials as a performer and has become a respected name as a stage director and published composer. He has appeared internationally in leading baritone roles including Figaro in The Barber of Seville, Marcello and Schaunard in La Bohème, and Falke in Die Fledermaus with such noted companies as the San Francisco Opera Center, LA Opera, and for the Cultural Arts Festival in Cortona, Italy.

Recently for LA Opera, Mr. Villanueva directed the acclaimed production of Noye’s Fludde at the Cathedral of Our Lady of the Angels in downtown Los Angeles conducted by Maestro James Conlon. This event combined a community cast and orchestra of over 200 as well as professional artists from LA Opera. Mr. Villanueva is resident stage director for LA Opera’s acclaimed Education and Community Programs department. For their In-School Opera programs, he teaches and directs more that 1,500 students annually in original productions. These one-act operas include his very popular compositions, Figaro’s American Adventure and The Marriage of Figueroa working with his brother LeRoy Villanueva as librettist. Mr. Villanueva’s compositions are praised for their appeal to audiences and performers alike. In addition, compositions ranging from solo vocal to choral works to popular handbell songs, can be found through publishing companies like Fred Bock Music and Laurendale Associates. Mr. Villanueva has appeared as guest stage director for universities throughout Southern California.
