Bachelor of Arts in Business Economics (code 2-8512)

This new program was recommended by the Academic Senate on February 18, 1999, approved by the President on March 23, 1999 and approved by the Chancellor on January 5, 2000.

The bachelor of arts degree with a major in business economics provides students with the tools of economic analysis and their application in a business environment. The business economics major prepares students for careers in the private or public sector. Students completing this major will have a solid foundation in microeconomic theory, macroeconomic theory, and quantitative methods. They will have also completed courses in international economics and business administration. The bachelors degree in business economics is excellent preparation for graduate study in economics, business administration, public administration, and law.
