5 Policy on Offering Courses Prior to Listing in the General College Bulletin

6
7 The policy of the College is that regular courses (not experimental) should ordinarily be listed in 8 the General College Bulletin for the year in which they are to be offered. However, an exception 9 may be made for a course which has received all necessary curricular approvals up to and 10 including certification by Academic Planning for inclusion in the next General Bulletin. Such a 11 course may be authorized for offering with approval of the Dean of the School concerned.
