14 Students with scores of 5 or higher in International Baccalaureate Higher level courses will be 15 awarded baccalaureate credit of 4 to 10 units, depending on course equivalency. Departments 16 will be responsible for determining which, if any, courses within their own programs are 17 equivalent to International Baccalaureate courses, as well as the number of units to be 18 awarded. Departments shall be provided with information about the program and with syllabi for 19 IB courses, to be used in making this determination.
