REFERENCE: Graduate Studies

SUBJECT: Establishment of a Graduate Center

A Graduate Center has been created in Library East Wing to provide the following functions:

1. Continued study space.
2. Foci for diverse activities related to graduate studies and research, all of which to foster dialogue and sense of community among graduate students and faculty, e.g., informal and formal meetings, such as a regular colloquia series for creative and scholarship presentations.
3. House offices of graduate studies and research to be more facilitative and readily accessible to faculty, graduate students, graduate degree alumni, and their concerns.
4. Provide a functional and attractive center to which graduate students, their faculty, the Graduate Council, alumni, and all interested persons can identify and use as a Graduate Center.
