Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance (code 45230)
Merger of the Concentrations in Performance and in Choreography

This major program change was recommended by the Academic Senate on March 26 and approved by the President on June 15, 1998.

The Bachelor of Fine Arts in Dance is the only professional degree in Dance in the CSU. The primary objective of the degree program is to prepare graduates for positions as performers and/or choreographers in dance companies, musical theatre, film, and television. The program also will prepare students for entry into Master of Fine Arts programs in Dance. Preparation: All students wishing to pursue the BFA in Dance must demonstrate intermediate/advanced technical skill in dance by audition.
