CONTENTS

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>List of figures</th>
<th>ix</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>List of tables</td>
<td>xv</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Note on transcription of Russian alphabet</td>
<td>xvii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of abbreviations</td>
<td>xvii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Archival abbreviations using the Russian system</td>
<td>xviii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>List of some toponymic (place name) changes in the 20th century</td>
<td>xviii</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Preface and acknowledgments</td>
<td>xix</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

1. THE MEANING OF SPACE IN THE STUDY OF RUSSIAN ORTHODOXY
   - Introduction: The Diversity of Russian Orthodoxy
   - Studies of the Russian Church in the 20th Century:
     - a Soviet Administrative Vision of Space?
   - Geographical Studies of Religion: A-Political Space?
   - The Church, the State, and Society: The Difference that Scale Makes

2. “AUTOCRACY, ORTHODOXY, NATIONALITY”: THE MATCH IN MAKING
   - The Church, the State and Society in Pre-Modern Russia:
     - Spatial History
   - The “Autocracy, Orthodoxy, Nationality” Match in Late Imperial Russia
   - Orthodox Differentiation in Late Imperial Russia: the Old Belief

3. “LIBERATION OF CHRIST FROM THE NATIONAL EMBRACE”: RENOVATIONISM AS A MOVEMENT
   - Documenting and Mapping Renovationism
   - Renovationism as a Spatial Movement
   - Clergy and Wealth: The Geography of Parish Income before and after 1917

4. PLAYING CHESS WITH CHURCHES: RUSSIAN ORTHODOXY AS RE(LI)GION
   - Church Property Before 1917 and Russian Imperialism
   - The Soviet Politics of Church Property Transfers
   - Legacies of the Soviet Re(li)gion