

Presenter(s): _____

Total Points Earned: _____

30 points will be based on the quality of the poster, 6 points is dedicated to each of the following categories:

1. _____ Organization. Does it have all the important sections of a poster: introduction, methods, results, summary, conclusions, and acknowledgment?
2. _____ Flow. Do sections flow nicely and presented in a logical fashion?
3. _____ Visual appeal. Are images and equations big enough to see and legible? Is there a nice balance between the amount of words and images? Does the poster catch viewers' attention right away?
4. _____ Relevance. Is the content of the poster relevant to the audience? Did the main message in the poster come out clearly? Does it take some hacking to decipher the main message?
5. _____ Others. Are the fonts big enough to see from 4 feet away? Does the presenter cite the source of the information? Are there typos or misspelled words?

20 points will be based on the quality of the presentation, 5 points is dedicated to each of the following categories:

1. _____ Enthusiasm. Does the presenter think what he/she learned is really that worthwhile?
2. _____ Professionalism. Is the presenter with his/her poster the whole time? How does the presenter react to a question that he/she doesn't know the answer of? Does the presenter dress for the occasion?
3. _____ Planned and Rehearsed. How does the presenter respond to questions? How long does the presenter take to answer a question? Is the presenter able to explain in relatively simple terms what the poster is all about?
4. _____ Others. Is there any visual aid? Does the presenter get the point across? Does the presenter face the audience? Is the presenter loud and clear?

Additional Comments:
