Conference Schedule

Thursday, March 26

- Guided Tour of Public & Private Gardens in Los Angeles and Pasadena
  - 9:00 a.m.: Bus departs hotel at 9 a.m. and returns by 6 p.m. See itinerary on pg. 3. Cost: $40
  - 9:00 p.m.: Opening Reception and Plenary Lecture

Friday, March 27

- 8:00 a.m.: Buses depart from hotel to Daniel Recital Hall, CSULB
  - 8:30 - 9:00 a.m.: Coffee at Daniel Recital Hall
  - 9:00 - 11:45 a.m.: Welcome, Prologue and Keynote Address Featuring:
    - Marc Teich - Japanese Gardens: Floristics and Context
    - Makoto Satsuki - Evolution of Japanese Gardens
  - 11:45 - 12:45 p.m.: Hosted lunch at The Point, CSULB
  - 1:00 - 1:45 p.m.: Guided tours of the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden, CSULB
  - 2:00 - 3:45 p.m.: Panel 1 - Reaching Diverse Communities: Education in Gardens
  - 3:45 - 5:30 p.m.: Open Forum - Re-visioning the James Irvine Garden, Japanese-American Cultural and Community Center
  - 5:30 p.m.: Bus returns conference attendees to hotel for an evening on your own in downtown Long Beach
  - 6:30 p.m.: Buses return to hotel

Saturday, March 28

- Issues in Garden Management
  - 8:00 - 9:00 a.m.: Continental breakfast at Hilton hotel (all events at hotel on Saturday)
  - 9:00 - 10:30 a.m.: Panel 2 - Restoring and Renovating Gardens
    - Diana Larowe - Adoption of Japanese Garden Concepts in North American Gardening
    - Vergil Hettick - Healing Elements in the Japanese Garden Method
    - Dennis Makashima
  - 10:45 - 11:30 a.m.: Panel 3 - Are You Managing Your Collection Professionally?
    - Steve Bloom - Healing Elements in the Japanese Garden Method
    - Prudence Haines - Advice from the Architectural Perspective
    - Corey Wolfe - Los Angeles’s Sustainable Program
  - 11:45 - 1:00 p.m.: Panel 4 - Strategies for Fundraising and Management for Public Japanese Gardens
    - Kelly Sturkow McLeod - Introduction: Perspectives from the Architectural Perspective
    - Fred Fischer - Strategies for Fundraising and Management for Public Japanese Gardens
    - Hoichi Kurisu - Healing Elements in the Japanese Garden Method
  - 1:00 - 1:15 p.m.: Luncheon at The Point, CSULB

Sunday, March 29

- Guided Tours of Public & Private Gardens
  - See pg. 3 for Itineraries. Cost: $40
  - 8:00 a.m.: Bus departs from hotel
  - 6:00 p.m.: Buses return to hotel

Schedule is subject to change; all tour times are approximate.
California State University, Long Beach announces an International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan

History • Design • Maintenance • Management

Experts from Japan and North America, including designers, historians, and garden landscape professionals will present unique opportunities for those interested in Japanese Gardens. Learn how these fascinating cultural landscapes impact our global contemporary society. The conference will be a forum for garden directors, administrators, educators and students, as well as preservation and horticulture experts to discuss issues critical to garden sustainability. Garden enthusiasts are invited to attend conference sessions, special events and behind-the-scenes tours of select Southern California Japanese Gardens.

Conference sessions will take place on the beautiful CSULB campus and in downtown Long Beach at the Hilton Hotel.

The recently renovated and award-winning Hilton Long Beach & Executive Meeting Center hotel is located in Long Beach, California, offers exceptional service, international flair and an elegant ambiance conveniently located near both Los Angeles and Long Beach International Airports. Call Xpress Shuttle for service from LAX (1-800-427-7463) and use taxis from Long Beach Airport. The hotel is within walking distance of downtown restaurants and attractions. A special rate of $129 has been arranged for conference attendees for dates beginning 3/25/09 through 3/29/09. To take advantage of this special rate, please make your reservations early by calling (800) 445-8067 and ask for a room under the International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan or use Group Code ICJ.

Key Note Speakers

Kendall Brown
Ken Brown is Professor of Asian Art History in the Department of Art at the California State University, Long Beach and Curator at Pacific Asia Museum in Pasadena. He received an MA and PhD in History and art history from the University of California, Berkeley, and a PhD, in art history from UC Santa Barbara. Although a much-published specialist on Japanese prints and painting, he is also a scholar of Japanese gardens outside Japan. In his time he has published many articles and the localJapanese-style Gardens of the Pacific West Coast (Berkeley, 1995).

Makoto Suzuki
Makoto Suzuki is Professor of the Department of Landscape Architecture Science, Tokyo University of Agriculture. His research interests include the history of modern landscape architecture, the critical evaluation of modern garden design and Japanese gardens outside Japan. He is currently chairing a committee with the Japanese Institute of Landscape Architecture on “Japanese Gardens outside of Japan” and has authored numerous books and articles including Landscaping of the Japanese Garden Outside of Japan (2002), East meets West: World Influence of Ken Brown’s Gardens (2004), New Books, New Water: Transforming the Japanese Garden (2006).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and is a practicing designer. He has held fullbright, Sugiyama, and Japan Foundation Fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: Alcove in the Park: The Ottesen Gardens (2000), The Divided Art Killed Gardens: Modern Californian Modernism (2000), and Settings and Stray Paths: Reflections on Landscapes and Gardens (2006).

Ron Herman
Landscape architect Ron Herman has designed many of North America’s largest and most intricate private gardens. Having created more than 200 full-scale garden designs, he was recently engaged in the 55-acre Japanese-style estate of California software billionaire Lawrence Ellison. Upon earning a Bachelor of Landscape Architecture from UC Berkeley, he worked as a design associate with Robert Houaix Carter in Los Angeles followed by graduate studies in Japan. His experience led to a lifelong study of Japanese design. His work has been featured prominently in the national media, including The New York Times, Elle Decoration, Elle Decoration (France), and in several books on gardens including New American Gardens, Monochrome (2002), and New Classic Gardens: El Dorado (2005).

Tour Itineraries

Thursday, March 26
Los Angeles and Pasadena Gardens Fee: $40
Begin with a behind-the-scenes tour of recently renovated James Irvine Garden at the Japanese American Cultural & Community Center in Los Angeles. Then enjoy a tour of the Japanese Garden at the Akashi Huntington Botanic Gardens and lunch on your own. A special tour of the private Shinoh-Stearns Garden in Pasadena will complete our day. See schedule for bus departure and arrival information on pg. 4.

Sunday, March 29—Choose one of the following:
Los Angeles and Pasadena Tour (travel limited on March 26) or Orange County and San Diego Tours Fee: $40
California State University, Long Beach announces an International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan

History • Design • Maintenance • Management

Experts from Japan and North America, including designers, historians, and garden landscapers will present unique opportunities for those interested in Japanese Gardens. Learn how these fascinating cultural landscapes impact our global contemporary society. The conference will be a forum for garden directors, administrators, educators and stewards, as well as preservation and horticulture experts to discuss issues critical to garden sustainability. Garden enthusiasts are invited to attend conference sessions, special events and behind-the-scenes tours of select Southern California Japanese Gardens.

Conference sessions will take place on the beautiful CSULB campus and in downtown Long Beach at the Hilton Hotel.

The International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan is a collaboration between the College of the Arts and the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden, CSULB.

Conference sponsors include the Stein and Kelly McLeod Family Foundation, the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden, the Japan Foundation and Conference sponsors include the Steven and Kelly McLeod Family Foundation, the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden, CSULB.

The Japan America Society
Japanese American Cultural and Community Center

Conference sessions will take place on the beautiful CSULB campus and in downtown Long Beach at the Hilton Hotel.

The recently renovated and award winning Hilton Long Beach & Executive Meeting Center hotel is located in Long Beach, California offers exceptional service, international flair and an elegant ambience conveniently located near both Los Angeles and Long Beach International Airports. Call Xpress Shuttles for service from AX 1.800.445.8057 and ask for a room under the International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan or use Drop Code IC2.

The Japanese Institute of Landscape Architecture on "Japanese Gardens outside of Japan". He is currently chairing a committee with the Japan Institute of Landscape Architecture on "Japanese Gardens outside of Japan" and has authored numerous books and articles including "Japanese Gardens Around the World" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Ron Herman
Landcape architect Ron Herman has designed many of North America’s largest and most intricate private gardens. Having created more than 400 full-scale garden designs, he now recently engaged in the 25-acre Japanese-style estate of California software billionaire Lawrence Ellison. Upon earning a Bachelor of Landscape Architecture from UC Berkeley, he worked as a design associate with Robert Venturi in Los Angeles followed by graduate study in Japan. The experience led to a lifelong study of Japanese design. His work has been featured prominently in the national media, including The New York Times, Elle Decoration, and many other publications.

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Ron Herman
Landcape architect Ron Herman has designed many of North America’s largest and most intricate private gardens. Having created more than 400 full-scale garden designs, he now recently engaged in the 25-acre Japanese-style estate of California software billionaire Lawrence Ellison. Upon earning a Bachelor of Landscape Architecture from UC Berkeley, he worked as a design associate with Robert Venturi in Los Angeles followed by graduate study in Japan. The experience led to a lifelong study of Japanese design. His work has been featured prominently in the national media, including The New York Times, Elle Decoration, and many other publications.

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Ron Herman
Landcape architect Ron Herman has designed many of North America’s largest and most intricate private gardens. Having created more than 400 full-scale garden designs, he now recently engaged in the 25-acre Japanese-style estate of California software billionaire Lawrence Ellison. Upon earning a Bachelor of Landscape Architecture from UC Berkeley, he worked as a design associate with Robert Venturi in Los Angeles followed by graduate study in Japan. The experience led to a lifelong study of Japanese design. His work has been featured prominently in the national media, including The New York Times, Elle Decoration, and many other publications.

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).

Marc Treib
Marc Treib, Professor of Architecture Emeritus at the University of California, Berkeley, is a frequent contributor to architecture, landscape, and design journals, and a practicing designer. He has held full-time, supervisory, and Japan Foundation fellowships, as well as an advanced design fellowship at the American Academy in Rome. A noted landscape and architectural historian and critic, Marc Treib has published widely on modern and historical subjects in the United States, Japan, and Scandinavia. Recent books include: "Noguchi in Paris: The Unresolved Garden" (2000), "Close Readings: Modern California Modernism" (2000), and "Settings and Stray Paths: Writings on Landscapes and Gardens" (2005).
Conference Schedule

Thursday, March 26
Guided Tour of Public & Private Gardens in Los Angeles and Pasadena
5:00 a.m. Bus departs hotel at 5:30 a.m. and returns by 9 a.m. See itinerary on pg. 3. Cost: $40
6:00 p.m. Opening Reception and Plenary Lecture
Ron Herman - The Search for an Unknown Aesthetic: The Japanese Garden in America

Friday, March 27
8:00 a.m. Bus departs from hotel to Daniel Recital Hall, CSULB
9:00 - 10:30 a.m. Continental breakfast at Daniel Recital Hall
9:30 - 12:00 p.m. Issues in Garden Management
11:45 - 12:45 p.m. Guided tours of the Earl Burns Miller Japanese Garden, CSULB
1:00 - 1:45 p.m. Issues in Specialty Maintenance
2:00 - 3:45 p.m. Panel 1 - Reaching Diverse Communities: Education in Gardens

Saturday, March 28
Issues in Garden Management
8:00 - 9:00 a.m. Continental breakfast at Hilton hotel (All events at hotel on Saturday)
9:00 - 10:30 a.m. Panel 1a - Balancing Public Events and Private Appreciation
11:45 - 1:00 p.m. Guided tours of Public Japanese Gardens
1:30 - 2:30 p.m. Panel 2a - Restoring and Renovating Gardens
2:45 - 4:30 p.m. Panel 3a - Balancing Public Events and Private Appreciation
3:15 - 4:30 p.m. Panel 5a - Reaching Diverse Communities: Education in Gardens
5:45 - 7:30 p.m. Cocktail Reception for speakers

Sunday, March 29
Guided Tours of Public & Private Gardens. See pg. 3 for Itineraries. Cost: $40
8:00 a.m. Bus departs from hotel
9:30 a.m. Buses return to hotel

Schedule is subject to change, all tour times are approximate.
International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan

Registration Form

Personal Information:

Name: ______________________________________ Name for Badge: ________________________________
Job Title: ___________________________ Organization/Business: ________________________________
Address: _______________________________ City: __________________ State: ____________ Zip: ________
Phone: (home) _______________ (office) _______________ (fax) _______________ (email) _______________

Conference Fees: Please check appropriate box

☐ Individual/Organization Member $275
☐ Subsequent Organization Member $200
☐ CSU Faculty/Staff/Alumni $200
☐ Students w/ID $  75
☐ One Day Rate $175

Garden Tour Fees: Please check all that apply

☐ Thurs. March 26 LA/Pasadena $40
☐ Sun. March 29 LA/Pasadena $40
Or
☐ Sun. March 29 Orange County/San Diego $40

Tally Your Fees:

Your Registration Fee: ___________
Tour Fees: _________________
Total Amount Due: ________________

Payment Information:

Enclosed Check Amount: _____ Payable to: EBM Japanese Garden
Credit Card Type: __ Visa __ MasterCard __American Express
Name on Credit Card: ________________________________
Card Number: ___________________________ Exp. ___________

Three Ways to Register:

1. Call 562.985.2169
2. Fax Completed Form to 562.985.5362
3. Mail completed form with payment to:
   EBM Japanese Garden, CSULB
   6300 State University Drive, Suite 306
   Long Beach, CA  90815

Conference Refund Policy:

To receive a refund, cancellations must be received by March 12, 2009. No refunds will be given after that date for cancellations or no-shows. Refunds are subject to a 15% administration fee.

Lodging Information: A special conference rate of $129/night is available. Please state that you are part of the International Conference on Japanese Gardens Outside Japan or use group code: ICJ. Make reservations by Thurs. February 26, 2009

Hilton Long Beach 701 W. Ocean Blvd. Long Beach, CA  90831 Ph: 800.445.8667 www.longbeach.hilton.com

For conference information updates visit our web site at www.csulb.edu/~jgarden or call 562.985.2169