

PCR Lesson 19 Study Guide Part III

(If there is a unfamiliar character, mover the cursor before it, click on Tools, Hanzi Information to find out the Pinyin. Or click on Tools, Dictionary to find out the Pinyin and meaning. The dictionary function is not available in shareware version.)

Objectives

Review and grammar highlights

Step 1 Review the new words. How to say the following words in Chinese?

to want to like flower tea black tea orange juice beer a cup of a bottle classical modern song folk song music to sing
to listen

Step 2

Say the following sentences in Chinese:

What do you want?
Do you want black tea or green tea?
Do you want tea or coffee?
Do you want coffee?
I want a cup of orange juice.
I want a bottle of beer.
I want a cup of coffee.
I don't want anything.
I like music.
I like to listen to music.
Do you like music?
Do you like modern music?
Do you like classical music or modern music?
I like Chinese music.
Do you like American music?
Who do you like?
Do you like to sing songs?
No, I don't like to sing songs.
I am not able to sing songs. (using 不會 búhui, not able)

Step 3 Retell Lesson 19 in third person

Gubo, Palanka and Ding Yun are in a cafe. Palanka wants a cup of coffee. Ding Yun want flower tea, but the cafe does not have flower tea. They only have black tea. Ding Yun ordered (要了 yào le) a cup of orange juice. Gubo ordered a bottle of beer. They are listening to music in cafe. Ding Yun said that she liked American classical music. Palanka said that she liked to listen to Chinese music. She asked Ding Yun to introduce some Chinese music to her. Gubo said that Palanka liked to sing songs. But Palaka didn't sing. She asked Ding Yun to teach her Chinese songs. Ding Yun said: 'Good.'

Step 4

Grammar highlights

1. Alternative questions

Do exercise 2 on page 188 to review alternative questions.

2. So-called pivotal sentence.

For details, read the textbook, page 186-187.

Translate the sentences in Exercise 4 on page 189 into English to review pivotal sentence

Step 5 Do your homework 3

End of PCR Lesson 19 Study Guide Part III