Psychiatric Nurse Practitioner - San Diego, CA

Immediate opening available

Job Summary:

PT/FT Psychiatric/Mental Health Nurse Practitioner wanted to join a successful, thriving, outpatient psychiatric private practice in San Diego, CA. The diverse patient population is primarily compromised of high-functioning adults suffering from mood and anxiety disorders. The ideal candidate will be comfortable working closely in a multidisciplinary office with 2 board-certified psychiatrists and a psychologist. At the same-time, the Nurse Practitioner will have responsibility for their own patient caseload and provide the histories and physicals / psychiatric assessments, order and interpret diagnostic studies, develop treatment plans, provide pharmacologic & psychotherapeutic interventions, and manage ongoing care in consultation with the psychiatrists.

Hours:

M-F Flexible

Setting:

Outpatient Office

Minimum Requirements:

1. A Master's degree in Nursing from an accredited college or university with a specialty in Psychiatric/Mental Health Nursing AND completion of an approved Adult, Child, or Family Nurse Practitioner Program -OR- Completion of an approved Master's level Psychiatric Mental Health Nurse Practitioner's Program issued by an accredited college or university, AND

2. Possession of a CA State-issued medication furnishing number AND

3. Eligible to obtain a certificate issued by the United States Drug Enforcement Administration for writing of prescriptions for psychotropic medications.

License:

A license to practice as a Registered Nurse and a certificate to practice as a Nurse Practitioner issued by the California Board of Registered Nursing.

Salary:

Commensurate with experience

Contact Info:

Please submit CV to Jeffrey Chao via fax: (619) 281-1947 or email: jchaomd@gmail.com