Congratulations on your admission to California State University, Long Beach! By choosing to attend CSULB, you will be joining a campus of nationally recognized, diverse, talented and innovative students. We hope you will choose to continue your higher education at The Beach.

The Next Steps...

Now that you’re admitted to CSULB, you will receive an email that contains information on university housing, placement tests, available programs and services, new student orientation (SOAR) and important deadlines and contact information.

Enrollment

A completed Admitted Student Reply Form informs the university of your attendance in the fall and reserves your spot at CSULB. It requires a $150 enrollment deposit and must be submitted by May 1st. For more information, visit www.my.csulb.edu.

Placement Tests

Take the Entry Level Mathematics and English Placement Test (ELM/EPT) no later than May 2nd, if you are not already exempt. Visit po.st/eptelm or call 562-985-4007 for more information.

Emails

Be sure to continue to check your email for critical deadlines and updates. Check your junk mail and spam folders regularly in case something important gets lost.

Keep Us Updated

Let us know immediately if you have updates or changes that may affect your admission by sending an email to es-admit@csulb.edu. Check for missing test scores, transcripts or to do's anytime at my.cms.csulb.edu.

Financial Aid Reminder

If you missed the March 2nd FAFSA deadline, you can still apply for financial aid. Visit the website for additional info: www.csulb.edu/depts/enrollment/financial_aid/.

AB540 students may qualify for aid under the California Dream Act. For more info, visit dream.csac.ca.gov.
