Vimeo 2 – People Struggling (transcript)

I know that people are struggling all around the world. A lot of people don’t know about the help that they can receive. What really pushes me is that there is a lot of stories that aren’t heard, and being able to help somebody, and being able to, you know, show them the world, being able to make their day, is like the best feeling in the world to me.