

LONG BEACH STATE UNIVERSITY

CENTER FOR LATINO COMMUNITY HEALTH

EVALUATION & LEADERSHIP TRAINING

Internship Application Form

Thank you for your interest in an unpaid internship with the Center for Latino Community Health, Evaluation, and Leadership Training at California State University, Long Beach (CSULB Latino Center). Our mission is to improve, promote, and advocate for the health, culture, and well-being of diverse Latino/Hispanic communities. We have a university-based research center on the CSULB campus. Although unpaid, Interns are provided with a unique, dynamic, applied learning opportunity in which they will learn valuable skills transferrable to professional job settings while benefiting the local community. If you are interested in working with Latino driven projects, the Latino community, learning practical health education techniques that will strengthen your resume, and/or learning more about community-based participatory research - our unpaid internship is for you. If interested in this internship opportunity, please submit all required documents listed below. We look forward to hearing from you and exploring creative ways to use your talents to benefit the CSULB and local Latino communities.
