

WILLIAM SENA

*[Contact info redacted
for online publication]*

OBJECTIVE

To obtain a clinical supervisor position at California State University at Long Beach

EXPERIENCE

Rancho Los Amigos National Rehabilitation Center

Speech Language Pathologist II/ June 1996 to present

- Currently the primary speech-language pathologist on the pediatric service. Providing evaluation and treatment to the pediatric population (birth to 24 years). Duties include assessment and treatment of speech, language, cognition and dysphagia impairments due to TBI, spinal cord injury and neurological diagnoses.
- Duties also include assisting fellow speech therapy staff on the adult services (Adult Brain Injury, Adult spinal cord injury, Stroke and ICU and DOU areas). Complete assessment and treatment of speech, language, cognition and dysphagia on these services.
- Tracheostomy and Ventilator trained.
- Proficient in Videofluoroscopy (MBS) and FEES with adults and pediatrics
- Clinical Externship Coordinator (2015-present) Duties include: communication with multiple graduate programs in the US; assist students through the paperwork process; assign and train clinical supervisors; and guide students through the externship process/experience.
- CPR clinical instructor for the past 5 years.

Presbyterian Intercommunity Hospital (PIH) Downey

Speech Pathologist/ October 2018 to present (weekends)

- Evaluation and treatment of adults with dysphagia and neurological deficits
- Conduct cognitive/language screenings

Professor-Cerritos Community College (SLPA Program) 2006-2007

- Taught "Introduction to Communication Disorders"- Responsible for class curriculum and administration of classwork and exams.

EDUCATION

Obtained BA and MS degrees from the University of Redlands in 1994 and 1996 respectively

Current licenses:

California License 10029

ASHA (American Speech and Hearing Association) 09135939

AWARDS AND ACKNOWLEDGEMENTS

- Presentations:

“A Child’s Journey”- yearly conference completed for nursing staff discussing child development and adult vs pediatric Rancho Levels of Cognition.

Yearly departmental presentations on swallowing and brain injury for continuing education.

Supervision vs Coaching (presented to Speech and Occupational Therapy Departments) for continuing education.

“Assessment and Intervention for Clients with Traumatic Brain Injury” Presented to the Rehabilitation Institute Oregon; Interdisciplinary team (PT, OT, ST). June 2018