Course Policies

Attendance and Participation

Attendance (e.g., being present for all synchronous class sessions) and active participation are essential to your success in this class. Asynchronous participation in BeachBoard discussions is also required. Participation is 10.5% of your grade and will be monitored both through attendance at Zoom sessions and through entries in the online discussion board via BeachBoard. Non-participation in either synchronous or asynchronous aspects of the course will negatively impact your grade.

https://web.csulb.edu/divisions/aa/grad\_undergrad/senate/documents/policy/2001/01/.

Absences may be excused in limited situations including an illness or injury, jury duty, or death of an immediate family member. For an absence to be excused, acceptable documentation is required. If an absence does not qualify according to the limited circumstances of the CSULB Attendance Policy, you are still allowed one absence for personal or professional reason (e.g., a wedding, after-hours work obligation, etc.). Please note you will need to make up any in-class assignments that are graded.

Late Work/Make-up Policy

You are strongly encouraged to keep up with assignments and turn them in on time. Not all assignments can be accepted late. If you have a question about whether an assignment can be turned in late, please contact the instructor prior to the deadline for clarification. In general, late assignments should still be submitted to the BeachBoard dropbox, but it may be necessary for the instructor to create a permit to do this. In general, late assignments should not be emailed to the instructor. However, if you submit a late assignment to the dropbox, please email the instructor to check the dropbox for the assignment.

- If an assignment is of a type that can be accepted late and it is not more than one week past the deadline, it will be subject to a penalty of 10% of the maximum possible points for the assignment.
- If an assignment is of a type that can be accepted late and it is no more than two or three weeks late, it will be subject to a penalty of 20% of the maximum possible points for the same. Assignments beyond three weeks late may only be accepted by special arrangement with the instructor.
- Posts to discussions boards will not be accepted after the discussion board closes. Posts to these discussions that are late do not contribute to the discussion, because other students are no longer reading and responding to them.
- Assignments will not be accepted after May 7, 2021. Also, special sessions of a final exam will not be routinely administered. To request an exception to these policies, you would need to submit evidence of a serious and compelling reason acceptable to the instructor and there will be penalty of 10% of the maximum possible grade of the assignment that is in addition to any other late penalties that may apply.
- Any request for an exception to a policy must be supported by written evidence.

Plagiarism/Academic Integrity Policy

There is zero tolerance for cheating, plagiarism, or any other violation of academic integrity in this course. Work submitted is assumed to be original unless your source material is documented using proper citations. Using the ideas or words of another person, even a peer or a web site, as if it were your own, constitutes plagiarism. It is your responsibility to review the University policy on Cheating and Plagiarism that governs your participation in courses at CSULB.

All work for the course is subject to being scanned by anti-plagiarism software, such as Turnitin. Assignments must be submitted to the electronic Dropbox on Beachboard, and turning in assignments this way is the mechanism that allows them to be scanned by anti-plagiarism software. Assignments that are provided to the instructor a different way than the Beachboard Dropbox (such as emailed assignments) may result in a reduced grade. In particular, an assignment may receive a 0 grade if it was not made available for a scan by anti-plagiarism software.

On occasion, students have requested to submit work to meet requirements for more than one course. Students interested to submit work for more than one course must obtain approval in advance from all instructors involved. Such requests may potentially be viewed favorably if they involve extending and expanding on the work from the perspectives of more than one course. On the other hand, students are advised that such requests are not viewed favorably when they substantially involve re-using previous work rather than extending it. When substantially similar work is submitted for more than one course without receiving advance permission from the instructor, the work is subject to a reduced or 0 grade. Penalties for a single instance of cheating or plagiarism depend on the circumstances, but may include a reduced grade or zero score on the involved assignment/exam, an "F" for course, and/or referral to the Office of Judicial Affairs. In some cases, the Office of Judicial Affairs may impose possible probation, suspension, and/or expulsion.

University Withdrawal Policy

Class withdrawals during the final 3 weeks of instruction are not permitted except for a very serious and compelling reason such as accident or serious injury that is clearly beyond the student's control and the assignment of an Incomplete grade is inappropriate (see Grades). Application for withdrawal from CSULB or from a class must be filed by the student online, whether or not the student has ever attended the class; otherwise, the student will receive a grade of "WU" (unauthorized withdrawal) in the course. View the CSULB guidelines on Dropping and Withdrawal for more detailed information.

Special Needs Accommodations

Students with disabilities who require reasonable academic accommodations are strongly encouraged to register with the Bob Murphy Access Center (BMAC) each semester. Students must submit supporting disability documentation to BMAC and provide faculty of any BMAC verification of accommodations as early in the semester as possible. BMAC is located in the Student Success Center, Room 110 and may also be reached by phone at (562) 985-5401 or via email at bmac@csulb.edu.

College of Education Expectations for Professional Conduct

Professional conduct and ethical dispositions are expected of all CED students at all stages of program participation including: advising, coursework, clinical/field practice, and extra-curricular activities in face-to-face, hybrid and online/virtual learning environments.

A CED student is expected to:

1. Act to benefit all individuals and communities by promoting the physical and psychological safety of others. Do no harm.
2. Abide by the mission, policies, procedures, safety regulations, and standards of professionalism of partnering institutions (e.g., schools, clinics, colleges, community organizations) when engaged in clinical or field practice.
3. Demonstrate cultural competence and responsiveness in honoring and respecting multiple perspectives, identities, and lived experiences of others in diverse classroom and clinical settings.
4. Monitor professional integrity by engaging in self-reflective practice and acknowledging the consequences of one's own actions or inactions on others.
5. Maintain essential collegial behaviors and ethical obligations delineated in standards of professional practice by accrediting organizations and professional associations in one's field of practice, including but not limited to the California Commission on Teacher Credentialing and other associations .

CED students must adhere to CSULB's Rules and Regulations and student conduct codes enforced by the CSULB Office of Student Conduct & Ethical Development, as well as to college, department, and program policies. If deemed necessary, reports of discriminatory behaviors toward others based on age, culture, national origin, gender, ability, race, religion, or sexual orientation will be referred to the CSULB Office of Equity and Diversity. Observed forms of harassment in physical or digital form may require immediate referral to the CSULB Office of Student Conduct & Ethical Development. Claims of sexual harassment, discrimination, harassment, or retaliation will be reported immediately to the CSULB Office of Equity and Diversity.

Sexual Assault, Rape, Dating/Domestic Violence and Stalking

Title IX prohibits gender discrimination, including sexual harassment and sexual misconduct. If you have experienced sexual harassment, sexual assault, rape, dating/domestic violence, or stalking, the campus confidential Victim's Advocate is available to help. Jaqueline Urtez (e: advocate@csulb.edu, p: (562) 985-2668) can provide free and confidential support, accommodations, and referrals for victims without having to report the assault to campus authorities. While students are welcome to discuss assaults with faculty, both faculty and teaching assistants are mandatory reporters who are required to report all incidents of sexual harassment/misconduct to the Title IX office for follow-up and possible investigation. Students who do wish to report the assault for possible investigation may contact the confidential victim's advocate, who can help them through the reporting process, or they can report the assault directly to the Title IX Office by completing an online reporting form at <https://www.csulb.edu/equity-diversity/title-ix> or contacting the Office of Equity & Diversity at OED@csulb.edu.
