POSITION: Part-Time Lecturer (Openings in Statistics and Quantitative Methods)

Part-time temporary positions may be available for Fall or Spring semester. If you are interested in being considered for a teaching position during the 2022-2023 academic year, please submit the required documentation as listed below.

EFFECTIVE DATE: Applications are being accepted for the academic year 2022-2023.

SALARY: Commensurate with qualifications and experience

MINIMUM QUALIFICATIONS: A relevant Masters degree. Demonstrated potential teaching Business Statistics, Quantitative Methods, or related courses. Must meet the current requirement of the College of Business Administration to be Practice Academic (PA), Scholarly Practitioners (SP), or Instructional Practitioners (IP). Information concerning these four requirements can be found on the College of Business site.

DESIRED/PREFERRED QUALIFICATIONS: Successful record of teaching Business Statistics, Quantitative Methods, or related courses. Record of scholarly and creative activity. Experience or demonstrated commitment to supporting and mentoring students from the diverse communities served by CSULB.

DUTIES: Teach Business Statistics and Quantitative Methods upper division courses.

CSULB is a Hispanic Serving Institution and an Asian American and Native-American/Pacific Islander Serving Institution located in a city with a large Cambodian/Cambodian American population in an aspirational context for increasing local Black, Indigenous and People of Color enrollment.

CSULB seeks to recruit faculty who enthusiastically support the University’s strong commitment to the academic success of all of our students, including students of color, students with disabilities, students who are first generation to college, veterans, students with diverse socio-economic backgrounds, and students of diverse sexual orientations and gender expressions. CSULB seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the People of California, to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer our students a rich variety of expertise, perspectives, and ways of knowing and learning.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION:

- Letter of application addressing minimum and desired/preferred qualifications
- Resume with current email address
- List of three to five current references or letters of recommendation
- Copy of transcript from institution awarding highest degree
- Finalist will be required to submit signed SC-1 form, three current letters of recommendations (if not already submitted), and an official transcript

A background check (including criminal records check and telephone reference check with most recent employer) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 Revised July 21, 2017 as a condition of employment.

Applications, required documentation, and/or requests for information can be sent electronically and should be addressed to:
