Serving Institution located in a city with a large Cambodian/Cambodian American population in an aspirational context for increasing local Black, Indigenous and People of Color enrollment.

The Graduate Program at California State University, Long Beach is committed to building a more diverse faculty, staff, and student body as it responds to the changing population and educational needs of California and the nation. We seek applicants and nominations from those who have experience teaching, mentoring, and developing research in ways that effectively address individuals from historically underrepresented backgrounds. California State University, Long Beach is an affirmative action/equal opportunity employer.

EMPLOYMENT REQUIREMENTS: A background check (including criminal records check and telephone reference check with most recent employer) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.
The person holding this position is considered a “mandated reporter” under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 Revised July 21, 2017 as a condition of employment.

REQUIRED DOCUMENTATION: Letter of application addressing minimum and desired/preferred qualifications, resume with current email address, a list of three to five current references, a copy of the official transcript from institution awarding highest degree. Finalist will be required to submit signed SC-1 form, three current letters of recommendations, and official transcript.

Applications, required documentation, and/or requests for information should be addressed to:
