Position: Part-Time Lecturer – Legal Studies in Business Program (BLAW)
Effective Date: Fall Semester: August 19 to December 24, 2024
Spring Semester: January 21 to May 23, 2025

Salary placement is determined by the education, experience, and qualifications the candidate brings to the position, internal equity, and the hiring department's fiscal resources.

Target Hiring Range: $8,200-$9,500 per three-unit course commensurate with candidate's education, experience, skills, and training.

Minimum Qualifications:

- JD degree from an ABA-accredited institution
- Current relevant professional experience, including a legal license to practice law, and holding a legal position at a national, regional, or local firm, major corporation or government
- Current in the profession by completing the necessary continuing legal education courses required by the State Bar Association
- Must meet the current requirement of the College of Business Administration to be Scholarly Academic (SA), Practice Academic (PA), Scholarly Practitioners (SP), or Instructional Practitioners (IP). Information concerning these four requirements can be found on the College of Business site.

Preferred/Desired Qualifications:

- Experience or demonstrated commitment to supporting and mentoring students from the diverse communities served by CSULB

Duties:

- Teach Introduction to Law and Business Transactions (BLAW 220), The Consumer in the Legal and Economic Environment (BLAW 309), Legal & Regulatory Environment of Business (BLAW 320), Intellectual Property (BLAW 422), International Legal Environment of Business (BLAW 424), and Business Ethics (CBA 400)
- Hold appropriate office hours

CSULB is a Hispanic Serving Institution and an Asian American and Native-American/Pacific Islander Serving Institution located in a city with a large Cambodian/Cambodian American population in an aspirational context for increasing local Black, Indigenous and People of Color enrollment.

CSULB seeks to recruit faculty who enthusiastically support the University's strong commitment to the academic success of all of our students, including students of color, students with disabilities, students who are first generation to college, veterans, students with diverse socio-economic backgrounds, and students of diverse sexual orientations and gender expressions. CSULB seeks to recruit and retain a diverse workforce as a reflection of our commitment to serve the People of California, to maintain the excellence of the University, and to offer our students a rich variety of expertise, perspectives, and ways of knowing and learning.

Required Documentation:

- Letter of application addressing the minimum and preferred/desired qualifications
- Resume or curriculum vitae, including a current email address
- List of three to five current references or letters of recommendation
- Copy of transcript from institution awarding the highest degree

- Applicants offered employment will be required to submit a signed SC-1 form, three current letters of recommendation (if not already submitted), and an official transcript (e-transcript preferred)

A background check (including criminal records check and telephone reference check with most recent employer) must be completed satisfactorily before any candidate can be offered a position with the CSU. Failure to satisfactorily complete the background check may affect the application status of applicants or continued employment of current CSU employees who apply for the position.

The person holding this position is considered a "mandated reporter" under the California Child Abuse and Neglect Reporting Act and is required to comply with the requirements set forth in CSU Executive Order 1083 Revised July 21, 2017 as a condition of employment.

Applications, required documentation, and/or requests for information should be addressed to:
