

Mark Guillen

Director, Civic Engagement and Government Contracts Molina Healthcare, Inc.

Mark Guillen was recently recruited for this new position at Molina Healthcare, Inc. As Director of Civic Engagement and Government Contract, he steers a team of civic engagement advocates who are responsible for building vital relationships between civic leaders, nonprofit organizations, local legislators, and Molina Healthcare. In addition, Mark participates in corporate giving for Molina Healthcare, Rumba Foundation, and the Molinas' personal philanthropy.

Prior to his current role, Mark spent 28 years with the Los Angeles County Sanitation Districts, where he had been a Senior Project Manager in both the Research and Monitoring and Energy Recovery Department, overseeing the Household Hazardous Waste/E-Waste program, which is one of the largest programs of its kind in the United States.

Mark serves as a board member for the Compton Center, Long Beach Music Council, and the Rumba Foundation of Long Beach. He also sits on the Bond Oversight Committee for El Camino College. Mark holds degrees in Biology and Film and Television from the University of California at Los Angeles. He is a recent alumnus of the Leadership Long Beach Executive Quick Start program.

Mark is a native of the greater Long Beach area, where he attended local private and public schools. His family is well-respected in the region for breaking down barriers, having produced one of the first Latino elected officials in the City of Paramount.

Mark is married to Claire Guillen and they have two daughters, Abigail and Sophia.
