Michel Debost, John Barcellona - flutes

Michel Debost is currently Professor of Flute at Oberlin Conservatory. He was Principal Flutist with the Orchestra de Paris and succeeded Jean-Pierre Rampal as Professor of Flute at the Paris Conservatory. Mr. Debost has made more than 50 solo and chamber music recordings, for which he has received numerous awards. His recording of the Telemann duets with James Galway was nominated for a Grammy Award.

John Barcellona is Woodwind Coordinator and Associate Professor of Flute at California State University, Long Beach; flutist with the internationally acclaimed Westwood Wind Quintet (recordings on Columbia, Crystal, and WIM labels); flutist with the Moyse Duo (with Louis Moyse-piano); and Music Director of the Southern California Flute Orchestra.

Virginia Mitchell is a versatile pianist whose playing covers a wide range of styles: classical, jazz, avante-garde, as well as her own improvised piano pieces. She has played with the Westwood Wind Quintet, Irvine Trio, Long Beach Symphony, Master Symphony, and South Coast Symphony. She studied at Northern Illinois University and received her B.M. from CSULB, where she is currently staff accompanist.
