Novios ("Lovers") by Barbara Ransom

*If your world became grey because it had a detour
return to being happy;
forgive and grasp her by the hand.
You both will share intimacy reserved for two.*

*If you had a discussion and you suffered disillusion,
don't cry,
the hearts will be content cuddling, walking;
you will recover confidence in him.*

*You both inspire all the world.
Angels who are so profound have to recognize the essence of our being ... it's love, its love (es el amor)!*

*And that's why you understand there's no reason to look behind;
your happiness is in the ability to love.
You are lovers forever – Eternally enjoying love.*
