LONG BEACH STATE

Commercial Music/Jazz Studies

John Prince, Founder and Director

The Long Beach State Commercial Music/Jazz Studies program has a history of excellence since its inception in 1974 as the first state-supported university program of its kind on the west coast. The program has received local, national, and international recognition of excellence through numerous appearances at jazz festivals, educational conventions and command performances, and its ensembles and soloists have consistently earned the highest honors and awards at music festivals throughout the United States, Canada, and Europe.

Some of the more notable performances by Long Beach State Studio Ensembles have included the Montreux Jazz Festival (Switzerland), the North Sea Jazz Festival (Holland), the Playboy Jazz Festival, the International Association of Jazz Educators (IAJE) Convention, the International Trumpet Guild (ITG) Convention, the Music Educators National Conference (MENC), the California Music Educators Association (CMEA) Convention, the Long Beach Grand Prix, the Long Beach Jazz Festival (including 1994), the Dorothy Chandler Pavilion, the Long Beach Terrace Theater, the Long Beach Amphitheater, and Disneyland.

The Long Beach State Studio Ensembles have performed with such jazz stars as Bobby McFerrin, Rich Matteson, Bobby Bryant, Clare Fischer, Roy Burns, Gary Foster, Eddie Daniels, Bobby Shew, Pete Christlieb, Flora Purim, Vic Lewis, George Duke, Manny Album, Tom Harrell, Airtio, Ross Tompkins, Tommy Newsome, Doug McDonald, Joanie Summers, Ernie Andrews, Jack Sheldon, Les McCann, Guitar Shorty, Tommy Ferguson, Ashley Alexander, Sunny Wilkinson, Bruce Brown, The CSU Jazz Professors' Bone Band, Don Shelton, Phil Mattson, Gerald Wilson, Billy Taylor, Pete Rugolo, Bud Shank and Bill Watrous.

A recent performance by a string-enhanced Studio Ensemble I and Long Beach State's Vocal Jazz Ensemble Improvovz (led by Michelle Weir) with Pete Rugolo for the The Stan Kenton Fiftieth-Year Celebration was produced by radio station KLON and was included on a commercially-released four-CD set.

Over the past twenty years, the Long Beach State Commercial Music Program has prepared many students for entrance into the music industry. These individuals include music industry notables Jim Cox, John Patitucci, Chad Wackerman, Bob Wackerman, Jay Anderson, Mike Higgins, Dan Higgins, Dan Barrett, Sally Spencer, Dan Tullis, David Witham, Tim Pope, Tom Bevan, Rhonda Rivera, David Metzger, Bobby Bryant Jr., Darron Johnson, Bobby Rodriguez, Luther Hughes, Gordon Peake, Bill Steck, Mark Massey, Jeff Kashiwa, Cecilia Coleman, John Ferraro, Tom Kubis, Alvin Henry, Steve Crum, and Penny Watson.
