PROGRAM NOTES

HEMIKO

Hemiko is by far my most personal piece. It follows the journey of two in a long term relationship from the perspective of six letters that they share. The piece takes dramatic shifts from letter to letter as the lovers experience troubles both in their relationship, and their personal independent lives.

It was an interesting challenge arranging two instruments that are just so different from one another. My hope was to create a piece of music that feels new, which is part of the reason I chose flute and tuba.

The piece is dedicated to my wonderful best friend and girlfriend, Tiffany.

THE TALE OF SAINT PATRICK

The Tale Of Saint Patrick is a song that celebrates the life of Saint Patrick and his conversion of the Irish people to Christianity. The song has Celtic influences and summarizes the major events in Saint Patrick's life. This song was written so that everyone can listen and enjoy the story of the Saint Patrick's day holiday!
