ABOUT DAN FORNERO

Six months after moving to Los Angeles in 1982, Dan toured for a year playing lead trumpet with Woody Herman, kickstarting his career as a freelance trumpet player.

ABOUT ROB FREAR

In his tenth year as Director of Brass Studies at Cal State Long Beach, Rob Frear continues to appear nationally as a trumpet player and clinician. In Fall 2013 he was the featured artist at the Atlanta Trumpet Festival and performed a recital and master class at the University of Southern Mississippi. Reviewing his 2009 CD release In the Big City, Peter Wood of the International Trumpet Guild Journal writes, “Frear performs skillfully and artistically. His intonation is dead on, and he fearlessly and accurately executes the many virtuosic leaps and quick tonguing passages throughout.” Touring North America as Principal Trumpet for Star Wars: A Musical Journey, Stephanie McKay of The Star Phoenix said he exhibited “the trumpet player’s Jedi-like concentration as he delivers his notes.” Rob has performed on over 70 movie soundtracks, including recent hits Godzilla, Pacific Rim, and Percy Jackson: Sea of Monsters.

A member of the Hollywood Bowl Orchestra since 1991, he has performed as Principal Trumpet with the Los Angeles Philharmonic, Los Angeles Opera, Los Angeles Chamber Orchestra, Hollywood Bowl Orchestra, Pacific Symphony, Long Beach Symphony, Pasadena Symphony, San Diego Symphony, Bolshoi Ballet, American Ballet Theater, Royal Opera (Covent Garden), and the Joffrey Ballet of Chicago. Rob Frear is also a Yamaha Performing Artist.
