166 2.1.1 The Councils and Standing Committees of the Academic Senate are sub-
167 committees entrusted with the tasks of evaluating and developing University programs, 168 policies, and procedures and of submitting recommendations that aid the Academic 169 Senate in discharging its responsibilities.

170
171 2.1.2 Since the Academic Senate serves as the parent body, no council or committee
172 shall make policy recommendations to the President directly. All such 173 recommendations must come through the Academic Senate.

174
175 2.1.3 Members of Councils and Committees represent the entire University unless the 176 governing documents of a council or committee stipulate otherwise.

177
178 2.1.4 Councils and committees shall make the widest appropriate distribution of 179 information to colleges, departments, or the general faculty considering measures of 180 concern to those colleges, departments, or general faculty.

181
182 2.1.5 Councils and Standing Committees have the privilege, if not the obligation, of 183 inviting guests and of notifying interested parties when matters of mutual concern are 184 under consideration.

185 186 2.2 Procedures

187
188 2.2.1 Unless otherwise indicated, councils and committees are free to establish their

194 Senate Chair.

195

224

225 2.4.2.1 The specific policies governing the charges, structure, membership, and

227 separate charge documents for each Council and its corresponding standing 228 committees.

230 2.4.2.2 All standing committees of the Senate are subordinate to the Academic 231 Senate, and, as such, all policies and regulations recommended by any standing 232 committee shall be presented to the Academic Senate for approval, except for those 233 matters specifically delegated by the Senate either to a Senate council or to a 234 standing committee.

235

236 2.4.3 Special committees: The Senate may create special or ad-hoc committees for the 237 purpose of considering proposals that do not fall within the purview of any standing
238 committees.

240 2.4.3.1 The charges, structure, membership, and procedures for each special 241 committee shall be specified in the Senate resolution creating any such 242 special/ad hoc committee. Resolutions of this nature must set forth the number

244 Senate committee, whether faculty, students, staff, or administrators.

245

246 2.4.3.2 Ad hoc and special committees shall:

249 such officers.

250

251 2.4.3.2.2 Where no specific charge is given, the committees shall interact

255 2.4.3.2.3 Keep minutes of their meetings.

256

257 2.4.3.2.4 Inform appropriate individuals as to when and where meetings

502
 503 5.1.1 The selection of the committee or council to which a matter is referred will be

 505 standing committee or establishes a special committee.

506 507 5.2 Procedures for Proposing Policies and Resolutions

508
 509 5.2.1 After the committee has completed its deliberations and written

5.3 Procedures for Transmission and Consideration of Proposed Policies

5.3.1 Proposed policies and resolutions shall be transmitted to the Chair of the Academic Senate by the chair of the relevant council or committee for consideration by the Executive Committee and then shall be referred to the Senate for consideration.

5.3.1.1 In such cases that the Senate Executive Committee deems that further work should be performed on the proposed policy or resolution, said document shall be referred back to the committee or council for further consideration.

5.3.2 The first meeting of the Senate after the initial distribution of a council policy statement shall be considered as the first reading.

5.3.2.1 Referral back to the council between first and second reading shall not prevent the item from becoming a Second Reading as originally scheduled. If a policy statement is placed on the agenda, but is not considered because of adjournment, it will be placed on the agenda of the next meeting without any change in its status as long as this process occurs during the same academic year.

5.4 Resolutions

5.4.1 Any voting member of the Academic Senate may propose a resolution. The substance of a resolution may be anything that could be proposed in the form of a motion, but, due to its length or importance, should be written-out in advance to facilitate debate and, if adopted, easy distribution to those who may not be members of the Senate.

5.4.2 No particular format is required to introduce a resolution. However, Senators are encouraged to prepare resolutions expressing the opinion or advocacy position of the Senate by setting forth distinct facts and/or arguments supporting the resolution in paragraphs introduced by the word “Whereas” and the conclusions and/or actions to be taken in paragraphs introduced by the phrase “Be it therefore resolved” or “Be it further resolved.”

5.4.3 Senators are encouraged to prepare resolutions that will become formal policy using the numbering format of used in these Rules.

5.4.4 Proposed resolutions shall be submitted to the Senate Office Staff who shall, in turn, distribute the materials to the Executive Committee within three (3) instructional days of receipt.

565 5.4.5 The Executive Committee may choose to refer resolutions proposing changes to 566 policy to an appropriate Senate council or committee unless the proposed policy 567 changes are not within the purview any such council or committee, in which case the 568 Executive Committee shall place the resolution on the agenda for an upcoming Senate 569 meeting as a first reading. The original draft of such a resolution shall be distributed to 570 the Senate along with the agenda for the meeting at which the measure is scheduled for 571 a first reading.

572
573 5.4.6 The Executive Committee shall place opinion and/or advocacy resolutions on the 574 agenda for an upcoming Senate meeting as a first reading. The original draft of such a 575 resolution shall be distributed to the Senate along with the agenda for the meeting at 576 which the measure is scheduled for a first reading.

577
578 5.4.7 Following the first reading of any resolution in the Senate, the minutes shall 579 include the title of the resolution, but not necessarily the text of the resolution.
580

581 5.5 Consideration of Policies and Resolutions

582
583 5.5.1 In order to reduce, whenever possible, the time spent in the Senate discussing 584 reports and recommendations of councils and committees, and to provide an 585 opportunity for a council or committee to consider objections before they are 586 discussed in the Senate and to take such action as they may deem necessary (e.g., meet 587 with Senator concerned, revise recommendations, etc.), after the initial distribution of 588 reports and/or recommendations to the Academic Senate from a council or committee, 589 any member of the Senate who intends to express strong objections to the 590 recommendations of said council or committee, or to propose substantive changes in 591 the recommendations should (1) prepare a written statement outlining the objections
592 and/or proposed changes; and (2) transmit the statement to the Chair of the Senate
593 and to the Chair of said council or committee five (5) instructional days before the 594 report and/or recommendations are scheduled for final Senate consideration.
595

596 5.6 Consent Calendar

597
598 5.6.1 Recommendations (for policies, resolutions, and other measures) may be placed 599 on the consent calendar when perceived to be noncontroversial by the chair of the 600 council proposing the action and by a majority vote of the Executive Committee.
601

602 5.6.2 Since council policy statements, unlike committee reports, may become Senate
603 policy by consent by being placed on the consent calendar, they require special
604 procedures.
605

606 5.6.3 Recommendation on the consent calendar will automatically be approved after 607 two (consecutive) meetings of the Senate.
608

609           5.6.4 Any Senator may remove a recommendation from the consent calendar and place
 610 it on the agenda at the time of approval of the agenda. When the Senator objects to the 611 item, the item will automatically become a second reading at the next Senate meeting,
 612 unless the next meeting is a special, one-item agenda meeting.
 613

614 6.0 ACADEMIC SENATE PROCEDURAL RULES

615
 616           6.1 Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised: All business conducted in the Academic Senate
 617 shall be governed by the most recent edition of Robert's Rules of Order, Newly Revised
 618 published except as specified in this Section of the Senate Rules.
 619

620 6.2 Time Limits

621           6.2.1 Unless the Senate votes to limit or extend debate privileges by two-thirds of 622 those present and voting, a Senator recognized by the Chair may speak on any 623 debatable motion for a maximum of three (3) minutes.
 624

625           6.2.2 Unless the Senate votes to limit or extend debate privileges by two-thirds of 626 those present and voting, discussion of any item on the agenda for any Academic 627 Senate meeting that is not supported by a motion shall be limited to five (5)
 628 minutes.
 629

630           6.2.3 Unless the Senate votes to limit or extend debate privileges by two-thirds of 631 those present and voting, debate on a motion of referral shall be limited to ten (10)
 632 minutes.
 633

634 6.3 Amendments

635
 636           6.3.1 To increase efficiency at Academic Senate meetings, "friendly amendments"
 637 may be accepted by the mover and seconder of the original motion.
 638

639           6.3.2 If a Senator and/or the seconder of the motion object(s) to such an 640 amendment, then no further action is taken and the original motion stands.
 641

 644           6.4.1 Floor privileges shall routinely be accorded to any Statewide Senator, to any

 646 organization present at Senate meetings if these individuals indicate a desire to 647 speak. Floor privileges shall not be extended to any other person without a majority 648 vote of the Senate or without a Senator ceding his or her time to the individuals.
 649

650           6.4.2 Statements and/or reports presented to the Senate shall be included in the 651 minutes only by a two-thirds vote, and requests for such inclusions shall be made at 652 the meeting during which the statements are presented.

653
654 6.4.3 All documents submitted to the Senate for its consideration shall be identified 655 by author and dated.

656
657 6.4.4 Additions shall not be made to minutes of the Academic Senate for the 658 purpose of showing a particular member as having been absent at the time a
659 particular vote was taken, nor for the purpose of indicating how an absent member 660 would have voted on a question had the member been present.

661
662 6.4.5 Tape recorders and similar recording devices may be used at Senate meetings
663 by the Senate staff for official record-keeping purposes. Such recordings shall be 664 destroyed after the minutes for the recorded meeting are approved.

666
668 6.5.1 Members of the Senate shall act as spokespersons and representatives of the 673 conferences and other meetings.

674
675 6.5.3 If a replacement for a CSULB Statewide Senator is needed to attend a meeting
676 of the Academic Senate CSU, the most recently retired and available representative
677 from CSULB to the Academic Senate CSU shall be designated to represent CSULB as 678 a voting member. If that person is not available, the Chair of the Academic Senate 679 shall represent CSULB as a voting member. If none of the above is available, the 680 Executive Committee shall designate a representative.

681 6.6 Visitors at Academic Senate Meetings

682
683
684 6.6.1 Meetings of the Academic Senate are open. Visitors at meetings of the Senate 685 shall not be permitted to stand in the aisles or in any manner block the entrance to 686 the Senate room. If, in the opinion of the Chair this rule is being violated, the Senate 687 meeting shall be suspended until business can be conducted in a regular manner.
