4. Draft of GEGR policy
 - The GWAR committee identified the following issues that should be addressed in designing the new GEGR policy
 - Resources for struggling writers
 - How will these students be identified?
 - What additional resources (including new types of resources) will be required?
 - Faculty and students need to be made aware of the resources that are available.
 - Should syllabi be required to inform students of the writing resources available to them?
 - The maximum class size of 35 for writing-intensive courses is too large. (The cap was established at a time when struggling writers would have taken an extra class.)
 - 1 writing-intensive course is not adequate.
5. GWAR Questionnaire
 - Suggested questions should be written up and forwarded to Rebekha Abbuhl.
6. Waivers
 - Request for GWAR Waiver discussed and not granted.
 - Departments must be informed that they can't grant waivers
