MAKE A DIFFERENCE IN YOUR COMMUNITY AS A PAID INTERN!

With funding from California Volunteers and other state offices, CSULB is partnering with nonprofit organizations to place students in paid internships. The goal is to engage college students in meaningful work that builds leadership skills and civic responsibility, helps low-income students graduate college with less debt, and supports the work of community-based organizations as they build more equitable communities and address societal challenges related to climate change and environmental justice, food insecurity, and K-12 education.

SELECTED STUDENTS WILL:

- ✓ Commit to a two-semester internship and complete 450 hours of work (about 15-18 hours a week) while honing skills, exploring career opportunities and networking
- ✓ Enroll in a 3-unit internship course during the Fall 2024 semester
- ✓ Attend professional development trainings and workshops
- ✓ Receive up to $7,000 toward living expenses and a $3,000 educational award
- ✓ Connect with other interns across the state via a virtual community platform and regional events

To learn more about the program, attend an Information Session and visit our program website: CSULB.edu/College-Corps. Have questions? Email us at CollegeCorps@csulb.edu.
